TUSCOLA

The water here last week was the highest ever known unless it was when the old woman jumped over the moon with her canteen in her hand. We are informed that Mrs. Harriet Christian, whose home is at Rev. Roland Hutchison's, was in a dying condition yesterday evening. She has passed her four score years and ten and has lived a consistent christian life more than 75 years. Her life has been a model one and her Bible her constant companion. Mrs. Carrie Taylor, who has been visiting her brother, Isaac Cunningham and her sister, Mrs. Kittie Jordan returned to her home at Elkview, W. Va., last week. James Prichard attended the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. last week at Maysville. He reports a great meeting. Bill Presley, Jr., moved on James Prichard's farm last week. George Carter of Gladys was here Sunday on business.

Sunday on business.

There was no church at Ollioville Sunday night on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Christian. Rev. E. S. Flynt of Glenwood will preach at Ollioville the first Sunday evening and night of next month. Dr. Jake Neal and Cyrus Webb have been scouring the country for turkeys and have bought and shipped several hundred of them. Dennis Coffee is the latest addition to the list of mail carriers on this route and is making good. When his horses fall he takes the sacks on his back and comes in on schedule time. Some of our nimrods were chasing Bob White last week and some were taking advantage of Mr. Cotton Tall by using a ferret. One of James Prichard's large fat hogs broke down Sunday which necessitated butchering on Sunday. He couldn't tell the difference in the taste of pork. OLD LEM JUCKLENS.
